

Who are being kept by the power of God, through faith, for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (1 Peter 1:5)	The end of your faith, receiving the salvation of your souls. (1 Peter 1:9)	Who himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, should live in righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. (1 Peter 2:24)
The like figure even baptism which also now saves us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: (1 Peter 3:21)	And if the righteous man is saved with difficulty, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? (1 Peter 4:18)	And count the longsuffering of our Lord to be salvation; according as our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you. (2 Peter 3:15)
I would put you in remembrance, knowing you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterwards destroyed those who did not believe. (Jude 1:5)	And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, Now has come the salvation, the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brothers has been cast down, who accuses them before our God day and night. (Revelation 12:10)	After these things I heard a great voice of many people in heaven, saying, Halleluyah; salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, belong to the Lord our God. (Revelation 19:1)
