Numbers 32:23

Have you broken any of the Ten Commandments?

1. You shall have no other gods before me.
2. You shall not make for yourself any carved image.
3. You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
5. Honour your father and your mother.
6. You shall not kill.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
10. You shall not covet ... anything that is your neighbour's.

"If you keep the whole law, but offend in one point, you are guilty of all."
(James 2:10)

"If you keep the whole law, but offend in one point, you are guilty of all."
(James 2:10)

Dear reader, the truth is that at some time in your life you have broken one of these commandments, and that makes you guilty of breaking God's law. If you are arrested for stealing, you can be sent to jail in your own country, even though you may not have killed anybody or committed adultery: you are guilty of breaking the law. So it is with God's law, and God says:

"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23),
"If we say that we have not sinned, we make him (God) a liar, and his word is not in us." (1 John 1:10).

God even judges thoughts, so lusting after someone is counted as adultery (Matthew 5:28), and hating someone is counted as murder (1 John 3:15).

Dear reader, God loves you, and has made a way out for you that you can be delivered from sin, have all your past sins forgiven,
